Management word of GFH Financial Group BSC

Praise be to God, and prayers and peace be upon the most honorable messengers, our prophet Muhammad, and upon all his family and companions...

With the close of the blessed month of Ramadan 1446AH, the management of GFH Financial Group under the supervision of the Sharia Supervisory Board is pleased to present to the attention of shareholders and investors the Zakat guide for the fiscal year ending on December 31, 2024, where the value of Zakat due in the share for each project has been clarified, and The Sharia Supervisory Board has reviewed the data of the Zakat guide and approved it accordingly. Responsibility for paying Zakat is on the shareholders and the investors themselves.

The Sharia Supervision Department of GFH Financial Group has intended the ease of reading the Zakat guide to users, as the attached tables clearly show how to pay the Zakat due for each project separately, and this guide has been prepared under the supervision of a group of specialists in the financial and Sharia field in the group in addition to direct supervision by the Executive Committee of the Sharia Supervisory Board.

We ask God to help everyone to perform this great pillar, and to guide us and you to what He loves and pleases Him, and to bless us with what he has provided us and makes us thankful for him.

Dr. Mohammed Abdulsalam

Group Head of Sharia Compliance & Audit

Opinion of the Sharia Supervisory Board

The Sharia Supervisory Board has reviewed the operating results of GFH Financial Group BSC and the investments managed from it for the period from January 1, 2024 until December 31, 2024, and accordingly the Sharia Supervisory Board confirms - through its reviews and discussions with the bank's management - that the explanations provided in this guide and the method for calculating zakat for each of these investment activities mentioned here and the supported explanations, is in line with the principles of the glorious Islamic Sharia.

Method of calculating zakat and currency exchange rates

First: Method for calculating zakat

Example:

An investor holds 10,000 shares in the GFH Group

So, the amount of zakat that he owes is:

Due Zakat per share x number of shares = amount of due Zakat

Thus, his zakat is:

GFH Financial Group: 0.0015 (Zakat per share) x 10000 (number of shares) = $ 15 (Total Zakat due)

Second: Currency exchange rates

To give the Zakat value in local currency, please use the exchange rates against the dollar shown in the following table:

Currency exchange rates against the dollar on December 31, 2024:

Currency	Exchange rate
Bahraini Dinar	0.376
Kuwaiti Dinar	0.3080
Saudi Riyal	3.75
Emirati Dirham	3.6725
Euro	0.9610
